

DORS Works for Maryland Businesses

Maryland Division of Rehabilitation Services (DORS)

80% of our job seekers who become employed are still working after one year!

What are businesses saying?

Neill Christopher, Acadia Windows:

"Give me 45 minutes and I will convince a business to give this a chance! Acadia employees with disabilities are in the top five percent for attendance, the top ten percent with hitting their performance goals. They make us a better company."

DORS can help your business grow by providing:

- Recruitment assistance and pre-screening of qualified applicants
- Reimbursement of wages for on-the-job training
- Technical assistance for accessing tax incentives
- Disability & Employment training for your staff
- Retention services for your employees with disabilities
