

Maryland State Department of Education
Division of Rehabilitation Services
Client Litigation Agreement

Policy

It is the policy of the Division of Rehabilitation Services (DORS) that individuals with disabilities who have any legal claims arising out of an accident or injury request payment for the costs of their vocational rehabilitation services as part of their legal claims.

Client Agreement

I understand the policy of the Division of Rehabilitation Services and hereby agree to request payment for the costs of my vocational rehabilitation services as part of any legal claims arising out of an accident or injury.

I further agree that, if I receive payment for the costs of any vocational rehabilitation services provided by DORS, I will reimburse DORS for the costs of such services.
